

Grey Institute

It is believed that this photograph was taken circa 1900 by Lawrence Monaghan, who attended the Grey Institute, when the boys went on a cricket tour.

Cricket greats Graeme Pollock and Jonty Rhodes were at the Grey High School on January, 2006, as the school kicked off it's 150th Anniversary celebrations with an inter-schools cricket festival.

Here they pose with the captains of the teams that participated.

FIRST MATCH

The Grey Club and the 10th Regiment had a game yesterday - the former lost by nearly 50 runs.

The 10th have some good players amongst them, while the Greys are all boys but one.

Still they did pretty well for their maiden match - and next time they hope to do better.

The fielding on the Grey side was not good, while on the part of the Military it was excellent.
